WELCH WILL BE A CANDIDATE

STATE INSURANCE COMMISSIONER WILL WORK FOR REFORM IN NEXT LEGISLATURE

WANTS RESTRICTIONS STRONGER

In Order to Give Better Control Over the 200 Companies Operating in the State—Income Increased and Expenses Lowered.

Oklahoma City.—Hon. A. L. Welch, who was appointed Insurance Commissioner in March, 1913, Saturday afternoon stated that he would be a candidate in the approaching primary. Asked to make a formal announcement, Mr. Welch said:

"Yes, I am a candidate for Insurance Commissioner, subject to the Democratic primary, and will make formal announcement of my candidacy at an early date. Of course, I have no objection, in fact would be glad to have my friends over the state know I have definitely decided to make the race, but you understand in my formal announcement, I want to give a report of my stewardship, and I also have in mind some remedial legislation, that I shall favor, which I believe if enacted into law, will materially help in protecting the people against fraudulent concerns and practices."

Asked about our present insurance laws, he said:

"As a whole, I think they are the best in the Union, but experience proves they hardly go far enough in some instances, for instance, in protecting the people against stock jobbing concerns. I am very firmly of the opinion that companies in process of organization should be under the supervision of the Insurance Department. There are several other matters I shall take up in my announcement."

Asked as to the number of companies operating in this state, Mr. Welch said:

"There are something over two hundred companies authorized to do business in Oklahoma. The laws of this state require all companies to file on or before the last day of February, a report with the Insurance Department, giving a statement of their financial condition on the 31st day of December of the preceding year, and giving a record of their business for that year, and with so many companies, you can very readily understand that we have a large volume of business to dispose of between now and the first day of March, and I do not propose to let anything hinder the work of the department, or in the least interfere with the systematic work we are doing to protect the people of this state against fraudulent concerns. My ambition is to see the day when Oklahoma will be absolutely free from the operation of unreliable concerns, and all insurance transactions that are of a questionable nature. I have tried to apply the same business principles to the conduct of my office as I would employ in my private business, and I think my record will show that the department has been economically and carefully managed. We have succeeded in lowering expenses without in any wise impairing the efficiency of service, and the income for the past twelve months shows a handsome increase over the preceding twelve months."

Mr. Welch has been a resident of Oklahoma since 1906, having come here from his native state, Missouri. He was elected treasurer of Chariton County, Missouri, two consecutive terms, 1892-1894. Mr. Welch has made his home at Detroit, Mich.

was engaged in the banking, real estate and insurance business, was vice president of the Portland Bank & Trust Company and democratic state committeeman for McClain county in 1912. He is prominent in banking circles over the state, and his record as insurance commissioner has been highly complimented. A visit to the Insurance Department will convince anyone that Mr. Welch is an executive, and that he has the department well systematized.

FIGHT IN NEGRO TOWN

Tuesday about 11 o'clock a. m. Several shots in rapid succession was heard emanating from Little Africa. It seems that a couple of colored gentlemen got mixed up over a crap game and fifteen cents and not being able to determine which was the legal owner of the 15 cents decided to shoot it out. Each one pulled a 45 caliber on a Winchester stock and began to shoot 'em up alive.

After the battle had cleared away it was found that the tall one over shot the mark and the short one under shot the mark so neither was hurt and outside of some of the colored sisters being scared out of four fits into a spasm no harm was done.
